

15 Months In the Sog Warrior Tour: The Ultimate Guide to Toughest Battle in the Vietnam War

The Sog Warrior Tour is a 15-month guided tour of the battlefields of the Vietnam War. The tour is led by a team of experienced veterans and historians who share their firsthand accounts of the war. Participants will visit some of the most iconic battle sites, including the Ia Drang Valley, the Ho Chi Minh Trail, and the Cu Chi Tunnels. Along the way, they will learn about the history of the war, the strategies used by both sides, and the impact the war had on the lives of the Vietnamese people.

What to Expect on the Tour

The Sog Warrior Tour is a physically and emotionally demanding experience. Participants will hike through dense jungles, climb mountains, and cross rivers. They will also visit some of the most sacred sites in Vietnam, including the War Remnants Museum in Ho Chi Minh City and the My Lai Massacre Memorial. Along the way, they will meet with Vietnamese veterans and civilians who will share their stories of the war.
