

An Unlikely Writer Confronts The 60s And Other Indignities

In her new memoir, "An Unlikely Writer," Jean Hanff Korelitz tells the story of her unlikely journey from housewife to successful novelist. Korelitz's memoir is a funny, moving, and inspiring account of her struggles and triumphs as a writer.

Korelitz was born in 1945 and grew up in a small town in New Jersey. She was a bright and ambitious child, but she was also shy and insecure. She didn't think of herself as a writer, and she certainly didn't think she could make a living from it.
