The 7 Baby Steps to Financial Freedom

In The Automatic Millionaire, Bach outlines a proven 7-step plan for achieving financial freedom. These steps are simple, practical, and effective.

1. 1

Save $1,000 for your emergency fund. This will give you a financial cushion to cover unexpected expenses, such as a car repair or medical bill.

2. 2

Pay off all of your debt (except for your mortgage). This will free up your cash flow and help you save more money.

3. 3

Save 3-6 months of living expenses in an emergency fund. This will give you peace of mind in case of a job loss or other financial emergency.

3 OR 6 MONTH EMERGENCY FUND ?

Save 3 Months

- You're single with no dependents and a stable income.
- You're married and each of you has a stable income.

Save 6 Months

- You're married with a single income.
- You're a single parent.
- Your job is seasonal.
- Someone in your home is chronically ill.
- You or your spouse is self-employed, works on commission, or has a highly irregular income.

4. 4

Invest 15% of your income in a retirement account. This will help you build a nest egg for your golden years.

Considerations to Start Investing 15% of Your Income for Retirement

➤ Assess Your Current Financial Situation

➤ Begin Investing

➤ Consider Retirement Savings Accounts

➤ Diversify Your Investment

5. 5

Save for your children's education. This will help you give them a head start in life.

6. 6

Pay off your mortgage early. This will save you a lot of money in interest and help you build equity in your home.

6 Ways To Pay Off Your Mortgage Early

- 1 Make biweekly payments
- 2 Round up your minimum payment
- 3 Recast your mortgage
- 4 Use bonuses, refunds and other windfalls
- 5 Refinance and maintain your old mortgage payment
- 6 Make one extra payment each calendar year
